

Arielle Colella

Arielle (Pina) Colella is a performance artist and choreographer. Her art explores ideas of race, beauty and identity. She received her Bachelor of Fine Arts from The University of the Arts and completed the Headlong Performance Institute's post-baccalaureate program.

Arielle's works have been featured at venues and film festivals in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Antwerp and Paris. She has toured internationally with Enchantment Theatre Company and has performed in dance and theater productions for Nichole Canuso, Michael Kiley, Solange Knowles, Lightning Rod Special, Sad13 and Sebastienne Mundheim. Arielle is also an entrepreneur and food justice advocate inspired by her work with Dirtbaby Farm and her own motherhood journey.