

Moe Pope

Moe Pope, born and raised in Roxbury, MA, is a gifted lyricist and visual artist who reflects about community, family, love, equality and the human experience through his music.

With over 25 years in the music industry, Pope has been an integral part of the bands Mission, Electric Company, Project Move, and is currently the lead vocalist in the Boston-based Hip-Hop band STL GLD. Pope is known for curating innovative musical collaborations that draw from Indie-Rock, Punk, Soul, Jazz and others to create their unique style of music, challenging the perception of what Hip-Hop is supposed to be.
